and will continue for a few days to reduce and clean-up stock before the fall season opens and new goods come in.

You all know what one of our sales are—the genuine kind where goods are sold less than regular prices and that we back up the prices with the goods—that is the story in a nut shell.

All we have to say is watch our ads. and keep your eyes on our windows for they will be filled with bargains and changed very often as we want to make a short and quick clean-up. If you are in need now, or in the future, you cannot lose money if you visit our sale.

Thanking you for past favors and asking a continuance of the same, we hope to see you often.
